

Faith-ful Friendship Sharing Question:

Share with your Faith Friend this week one or two of the things that (in your heart of hearts) you know are not right, are not ok ... and yet you also know that you cannot change them or make them right. How do you feel about these things? Do you grieve? ... Talk with each other about the hope that lies beyond our human inability to make things right.